Plan Ahead ... An expression of faith, love and thoughtfulness

Planning Makes It Right

None of us like to think about our death, and that's understandable. However, the journey of a Catholic life prepares us for eternal life with our Lord Jesus Christ. The church invites believers to regard the mystery of death not as the "last word" of human destiny but rather as a passage to eternal life.

Pre-planning your Catholic burial makes spiritual, emotional and practical sense. In fact, in many respects, pre-planning your Catholic burial arrangements is a gift, both to you and those you love.

Here are a few reasons why you should consider making this important choice today:

Faith

When Jesus knew He was about to leave this world, He instructed His followers as to how to remember Him. As Catholics, the cemeteries we choose and burial choices we make should reflect His teachings and our faith.

A welcome sense of comfort

Making arrangements at the time of death often means coping with a family crisis, which carries with it significant mental and emotional strain. By making advance decisions, families gain a measure of comfort and relief, creating an environment in which to better support each other and celebrate your life.

Peace of mind

The need to purchase burial space is inevitable. Why delay enjoying the peace of mind that comes with making your choice in advance and knowing you have helped make a difficult time easier?

It just makes sense

Most of us give ourselves an appropriate length of time to prepare and plan for the important things we do in life. Certainly, decisions regarding your final resting place deserve the same thoughtful consideration, without needless pressure.

You decide

Pre-planning burial arrangements is much like creating a Living Will. It's a sure way to make certain that your wishes are understood and that your loved ones will not need to decide in haste without your help.

Significant savings

Higher purchase prices in the future are inevitable. Pre-planning protects your savings by "locking in" today's lower prices and eliminates the possibility that your family will be left with an unnecessary financial burden. Plus, you receive our pre-need discount.

Favorable terms

A pre-planned purchase allows you to pay over an extended period of time, with no interest.

Selection

The sooner you begin the process, the more desirable locations and the greatest number of options you will have to choose from.

Perpetual care

All Diocesan cemeteries assume responsibility of caring for our cemeteries and mausoleums. You and your family will not be subject to annual maintenance fees, now or in the future.

Understanding Your Choices

The Church earnestly recommends the pious custom of burying the bodies of the dead be observed. However, it does not forbid cremation unless it has been chosen for reasons contrary to Christian teaching. When choosing your cemetery and burial options, you should decide whether you want a full body burial or cremation. Even with cremation you need to choose your final resting place.

Next you need to choose between ground burial or above ground burial. Our full body ground burial spaces are available in single, companion or family plots. In addition, we offer cremation graves and gardens. Many of our locations include chapel and garden mausoleums with crypts and glass or granite niches.

We understand that burial planning may be an uncomfortable prospect for many. Our cemetery staff is available to answer your questions and concerns. Call 800-MyPrePlan today and speak to a staff member.

"And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back again and take you to myself, so that where I am you also may be." (John 14:3)
